

Invites you to celebrate Women's History Month by experiencing the legacy of Frank Lloyd Wright

It's no surprise that Frank Lloyd Wright was recognized in 1991 by the American Institute of Architects as "the greatest American architect of all time". However, what may not be as well known about this legend is his role in the promotion of women in the field of architecture. At a time when few architectural firms would hire women, Frank Lloyd Wright unhesitatingly employed women, giving them both training and opportunity to practice. Ultimately, over 100 women architects and designers worked with Wright.

NYcrew is celebrating women in architecture by featuring some of the industry's finest.

Join us for a panel discussion focused on WOMEN IN ARCHITECTURE - featuring:
